This is the initial flyer and additional details about the show will be forthcoming and on future flyers, including a location map.

A fun-filled "CORVETTE DAY" with some surprises during the shows. You must stay for all five shows to get the sanction points. There will be plenty of time for lunch at a nearby restaurant or bring your own picnic lunch. Then, relax and visit with the other Corvette owners at the show. There are many other attractions and activities in Battle Creek and the surrounding area. If you would like additional information, go to: www.battlecreekvisitors.org

This is an asphalt parking lot with very little shade so canopies will be allowed unless it is windy. NOTHING can be anchored into the asphalt.
