President's Letter – July

It was a great night for the picnic! Good food, conversation and the weather even cooperated. Thanks Barb and Ed Schaap for volunteering and setting up the picnic.

The Scott Flahive cruise was also a success. In memory of a fallen officer, the memorial fund raises a lot of money for those going into law enforcement. They had more cars than anticipated this year (175) and some of our club members even won some raffle prizes.

New members joining this month were Diane and Del Glass (50th anniversary vette). Also, attending the picnic as a new guest was Jack Wainer. Welcome to all!

Upcoming events include:

Del Shannon Cruise – Friday, August 12th Coopersville (10 cars)

Progressive dinner – Saturday, August 13th details to follow soon (13 cars)

LCC Rally – Saturday, August 20th

Wings of Mercy CareAffaire – Saturday, August 27th Tulip City Airport (14 cars)

Remember that nominations for next year's officers will take place at the next two meetings (August and September). We will vote on officers at the October meeting. Please take note that anyone & everyone is/are qualified and hopefully willing to be nominated. Thanks for your consideration to serve Your Club.

We currently need a sunshine person (non-elected) and a web person (non-elected). All other positions are open for nominations for new people or current position holders.

Suggestions for next year's longer cruise are being accepted NOW. Any and all will be considered.

Craig Smith,
LCC President

Secretary Report – Cheryl Carriere

We had a really nice, but warm night for the annual picnic at Tunnel Park. Thank you to our host, Ed and Barb Schaap. Nice job! We had a good turnout with 41 members, 3 guest, and 22 Corvettes. Del and Diane Glass are now official LCC members. For our guests, we had Jack Wainer from West Olive. Jack has a 1996 Red Corvette with only 10,000 miles. He purchased the Corvette in 1998. Also joining us were Myles and Mazie Ehler. Welcome back to Al Friend, who has been missing for a few months due to health issues.

Tom and Jackie sold the 50/50 tickets this month. The winner was Rob Dernberger. Rob took home $48.

Thank you to Brian and Stacie Ehler for a very fun and successful trip to Bloomington Gold. Great event and great planning! I definitely felt the need for speed!

Sign-up sheets are still going around for upcoming events. Tom & Jackie Atwood and Bill & Carole Fulkerson are planning an all day trip to the Gilmore Museum on Wednesday, July 27. If you would like to go, please meet at the Family Farm and Fleet on M-40 in Allegan at 9 am. In the evening, the Gilmore Museum will host a Cruise-In. Please contact Tom Atwood to RSVP. More information will be available after the LCC board meeting for the Progressive Dinner on Saturday, August 13. Edna has the sign-up sheet for the LCC Poker Rally. Please contact Edna or Roger for this event on Saturday, August 20. On Saturday, August 27, for the Wings of Mercy CareAffaire, we will meet at Sam's Club at 7:30 am. A pancake breakfast begins at 8 am. In addition to the breakfast, there is the LCC Corvette car show, a silent auction, a 5-K run before the breakfast, and air plane rides (at a reasonable cost). This events runs until noon. Contact Craig or Rick if you would like to attend this event and have not signed up.

Nominations will be accepted during August and September for all board positions, except President. Voting will take place in October. Please consider volunteering for a position and help to make YOUR club a success! We also need to fill two non-elected positions, Sunshine Department and Website manager.

If you are one of our 2016 cruise leaders, please let Cheryl once you have made a reservation at a restaurant. Our destination information will be posted on the web site and added to our newsletters. Oh No.....only three more cruises!

Please remember to keep checking our web site for new information and upcoming events!
